Committee Reports:

Jazz Café – Julie Merritt

Working on donations. Posters to schools are needed but Mr. Armstrong said he would do it if we give him the posters.

Tickets are on sale on line, Bealls, Chamber of Congress, and the high school.

The tickets need to be available on the WISD website as well.

High School:

Disney Trip: Ready to spend money. Condos are looking good. Buses are being lined up. Coordinating meals is in the works. Mr. Armstrong wants to add another event. There are no refunds now. Kids are signing up for rooms and buses.

Marching Band - In order to get to the next level, we have committed to consultants for next year's show.

Jazz Café – Planning on three sets (more but shorter breaks). The band is playing well.

Paige is over the seating charts. Mr. Bell is over the servers. Someone's (sorry, don't the name) husband has written a program for the silent auction payment processing.

Discussed the menu ... Beef tenderloin will be cooked on-site, Grilled chicken w/spinach ragu, roaster red mashed potatoes, grilled veggie medley, baby green salad, bread, tea, and coffee. The dessert table will be open after the dinner has been served. There will be four lines to keep things moving.

Paul (?) has donated 72 t-shirts w/3 colors.

Donations and the auction is import!

Paige Gordon volunteered to sell Jazz Café tickets on Thursday at the Guys and Dolls musical.

Next meeting is February 2, 2015 at 7:00 pm after the Disney meeting. Motion to adjourn by Ginger Kelly and Edward Quintana at 7:35.
